

Wayne Cocchi is a native of the New York (Long Island) and moved to Ohio in 1979 to complete his post-graduate work in education at The Ohio State University. After receiving his degree he remained in Columbus working at Columbus State Community College (CSCC) where he serves as the Director of Disability Services. Recently, he also served an eighteen month appointment as the Dean of Student Life at CSCC. In the community Wayne also serves as the vice-Chair of the Columbus Advisory Committee on Disability Issues. He has been a Commissioner for the Ohio Legal Rights Service, a Council member and Chair of the Ohio Governor's Council on People with Disabilities, board member and president of the Association on Higher Education and Disability, an editorial board member of the Postsecondary LD Report, board member of SOLIDARITY Ohio – Disability, Inc. and cofounder of the Ohio Transition and Communication Consortium on Learning Disabilities. Wayne has dedicated his life to advocacy for people with disabilities as well as promoting acceptance of diversity and equal rights for all.